THE EXPERIENCE OF RUTH.

The Swift Wing of the Swallow, the Strong Wings of the Eagle and Condor Used as Similes for the Wings of Diving Love. BIMOKLYN, Sept. 14.—The subject of the discourse by Dr. Talmage today was "Wings of Love," the tomous proacher taking for his text the words "The Lard me. No sympathy, no hope. Everybody God of Israel, under whose wings thou are that comes manying thrusts at me. I woncome to trust."-Bluth il. 19.

The Arabian curileis swift as the wire If it gots but one glimpse of the hunter jots many crags between. Solomon four or live times compared Christ to an Ara-tian gazelle scalling it by another name, when he says, "My beloved is like a roo," The difference is that the roe speeds the cher way, Jesus speeds this. Who hat thirst sould have been quick enough to have helped Peter when the water pavernent broke? Who but Christ could have been quick enough to help the Duke of Argyle when, in his dying moment he gried: "Good cheor: I could die iffes Noman, but I mean to die like a Christi Come away, mentlemen. He who goes first goes observed." I had a friend who shoul by the rail track at Carlisle, Pa., when the taniunities had given out at Antietam; and he saw the train from Harrisburg, original with shot and shell, as it went Dumdering down toward the battlefield He said that it stopped not for any crossing. They put down the brakes for no grade. They held up for no peril. The which were on fire with the speed as they cooked past. If the train did not come up n time with the numbranition it might as well not come at all.

So, my friends, there are times in our So, my themes, there are times in our in-case which we must have help immediately or perish. The grace that comes too latter by grace at all. What you and I want is a God-mow. Oh! is it not blessed in trank plant God is always in such quick. pursuit of his dear children? When a sin ner scela pardon, or a beffiel soul need-help, swifter than thrush's wing, swifter than pragmigan's wing swifter than the mingo's wing, swifter thin eagle's wing, are the wings of the Almighty.

THE SHILLTHREE WINES gremark further, carrying out the idea as my text, that the wings under which Ruth had come to trust were very broad erings. There have been engles that on the itooky mountains with wings that were seven feet from tip to tip. When the sing of the air sits on the crag the wines are spread over all the englets in the cyric, and when the engie starts from the rock the shadow is like the spreading of a storm cloud, so the wings of God are broad wings. Buth had been under these wings in her infantile days; in the days of her happy girthood in Month, in the day when she gave ber hand to Mahion, in her first marriage; in the day when she wept over his grave; in the day when she trudged out into the wilderness of poverty; in the days-

Of the poor.

Ohlyes, the wings of God are broad wings. They cover up all our wants, all our sorrows, all our safferings. He puts one wing over our cradle, and he puts the other overcur grave. Yes, my dear friends, it is not a desert in which we are placed, it is a nest. Sometimes it is a very hard nest, like that of the engle, spread on the rock, with tanged moss and rough sticks, but at ill is a nest; and although a may be very hard under its over us are the wings of the Almishay. There sometimes comes a perfect the substitute of the stay out in the cold to be shot of temptation and to be chilled by the blast when there You said: "Everything is against me. Sametime the mather bird goes away from the nest, and it seems very strange I know not what her features were, but when the Lord God sets bahind a weman's face the lamp of courage, and faith, and self-socializes there comes out a glory independent of features. She is to be the an estimate the bard door, and into the current of the field, as soon as he understands that the field, as soon as he understands that it is fluid, accoss her with a blassing, "A does not come back. THE ADMOSTY WINGS.

1 remark, further, that the wings under which Ruth came to trust were strong wings. The strength of a bird's wing a sea few s wing, for example—you might guess it from the fact that sometimes for five, six or seven days it seems to fly without resting. There have been condors in the Andes that could overcome an ox or a stag. There have been eagles that have picked up children and swing them to the top of the cliffs. The flap of an eagle's wing has death in it to everything is strikes. There are birds whose wings are packed with strength to fly, to lift, to destroy. So the wings of God are strong wings. Mighty to save. Mighty to destroy. I promin him—the Lord, strong and mighty the Lord, mighty in battle? He flapped his wing, and the antedfluvian workless. world was gone. He dapped his wing, and Babylon perished. He tupped his wing, and Herculaneum was buried. He dapped his wing, and the Napoleonic dynasty.

Hefore the stroke of that pinion a fleet is nothing. An acmy is nothing. An empiro a nathing. A world is nothing. The universe is nothing. King-eternal, om-inputen he asks no counsel from the thrones of heaven. He takes not the archnaugel into his cabinet. He wants none to draw his chariots, for they are the winds. None to load his hatterns, for they are the lightmost. None to the the sandals of his feet, for they are the clouds. Mighty to save, Our chemies may be strong, our sorrows violent. Our sites may be great, But quicker than an eagle ever hurled from the craze a hawk or raven will the Lord strike back our sins and our temptaonce scated on the eternal rock of bis sal vation. What a blessed thing it is to be defended by the strong wing of the Aimaghty' 80 conger than the pelican's wing. stronger than the ablatross wing, stronger than the condor's wing are the wings of
